McNeil was appointed team president on Jan. 23, 2024. The former Stampeders offensive lineman had returned to the organization on Sept. 22, 2022, in the role of vice-president of business operations.

In his role, McNeil oversees all areas of the Stampeders' operations and also represents the club at the league level. He played an instrumental role in the Stampeders' winning bid to host the 2026 Grey Cup game and festival.

McNeil played for the Stampeders from 1994 to 2007, earning Canadian Football League all-star recognition on three occasions and West Division all-star honours six times. McNeil was a member of Grey Cup-championship teams in 1998 and 2001 and was twice voted by teammates as the winner of the Presidents' Ring for excellence on and off the field.

After his playing career, McNeil remained in Calgary and built a strong business career, leading sales and business operations for a number of companies including Trinidad Drilling, Tervita, Secure Energy and most recently in the role of COO for Cleantek Industries.

JOHN HUFNAGEL

ADVISOR/CONSULTANT AND CFL ALTERNATE GOVERNOR

CFL • 26 | STAMPS • 25

John Hufnagel serves as a special advisor to team president Jay McNeil as well as to general manager Dave Dickenson.

Hufnagel was previously team president for eight years from 2016 to 2023. He served as the team's head coach and general manager from 2008 to 2015 and held the dual roles of president and general manager from 2016 to 2022.

Including his playing career, Hufnagel has been involved in professional football for 52 years including 38 in the CFL.

Hufnagel is a member of the 2020 class of the Canadian Football Hall of Fame in the builders' category and he was the 2019 recipient of the CFL's Hugh Campbell Distinguished Leadership Award.

Hufnagel is also a two-time winner of Annis Stukus Trophy as the CFL's coach of the year and led the Stampeders to Grey Cup victories in 2008 and 2014. He had a 102-41-1 career mark as a head coach and his winning percentage is best among coaches with at least 100 games on the sidelines.

The Stampeders posted a winning record for 14 consecutive seasons after Hufnagel's return in 2008 and accumulated seven first-place finishes in the West Division while qualifying for the post-season every year. Hufnagel served as GM for three Grey Cup-winning teams.

Hufnagel began his coaching career in 1987 with the Saskatchewan Roughriders as a player/coach. In 1990, he joined the Stampeders as offensive coordinator under Wally Buono. In this role, Hufnagel helped guide the team to three Grey Cup games, including a championship in 1992. His innovative offences were explosive under the direction of Doug Flutie, who received the CFL's Most Outstanding Player award three consecutive years (1992-1994) with the Stamps. Hufnagel also developed Jeff Garcia and enabled him to take over from Flutie in 1996. These high-powered offences produced future Hall-of-Famers such as Terry Vaughn, Rocco Romano, Allen Pitts and Flutie, along with players who received numerous league accolades such as Dave Sapunjis and Vince Danielsen. During Hufnagel's first seven seasons with the Stampeders, the team finished first in the West Division six times.

Following his early success in the CFL, he went to the Arena Football League as head coach/general manager of the New Jersey Red Dogs. In two seasons, he posted a 17-11 record. Hufnagel joined the Cleveland Browns in 1999 and spent two seasons as the team's quarterbacks coach. In 2001, he was the quarterbacks coach for the Indianapolis Colts when Peyton Manning completed 62.7 per cent of his passes and threw for 4,131 yards. Hufnagel spent the 2002 season as quarterbacks coach for the Jacksonville Jaguars. That year, Mark Brunell threw just seven interceptions in 416 pass attempts and his 85.7 quarterback rating was his highest in four years.

Hufnagel spent the 2003 season as quarterbacks coach for the Super Bowl-champion New England Patriots. Under his tutelage, Tom Brady completed 60.2 per cent of his passes for 3,620 yards, 23 touchdowns and 12 interceptions and was named the Super Bowl MVP.

The next season, Hufnagel joined the New York Giants, with whom he spent three seasons as offensive coordinator. In 2004, the Giants scored 60 more points than they had the previous season. Running back Tiki Barber set a franchise record with 1,518 rushing yards and quarterback Eli Manning started laying a foundation that saw him emerge as the Super Bowl MVP for the 2007 season. In 2005, Barber upped his team record to 1,860 rushing yards and the Giants had the third-highest scoring offence in the NFL.

Hufnagel returned to the Stampeders on Dec. 3, 2007, when he was introduced as head coach and general manager.

Prior to coaching, Hufnagel starred at Penn State University. In his final two seasons as the starting quarterback, Hufnagel's record was 21-3. As a junior, he led the Nittany Lions to a 30-6 Cotton Bowl win over Texas and in his final season took his team to the Sugar Bowl. He finished sixth in Heisman Trophy voting in 1972.

In 1973, he was a 14th-round draft choice of the Denver Broncos. He spent three seasons with the Broncos before beginning a 12-year CFL career with the Stampeders (1976-79), Saskatchewan Roughriders (1980-83, 1987) and Winnipeg Blue Bombers (1984-86).

Hufnagel earned a Bachelor of Science degree in marketing from Penn State. John and his wife Sherry reside in Cochrane. He has two daughters, Neely and Lindsey, and a son, Cole.

COACHING STAFF

DAVE DICKENSON

GENERAL MANAGER AND HEAD COACH

CFL • 17 | STAMPS • 17

Dickenson is in his 17th season on the Stampeders coaching staff, his ninth as the team's head coach and his third with the additional role of general manager. His regular-season record as head coach through eight seasons is 84-53-3.

Dickenson ranks third in franchise history in both games coached and victories. He owns five Grey Cup rings – three as a player and two as a coach.

His coaching career began in 2009 when he was named Calgary's running backs coach. That season, Stampeders running back Joffrey Reynolds claimed the CFL rushing crown.

In 2010, he was named Calgary's quarterbacks coach and Stamps pivot Henry Burris was voted the CFL's Most Outstanding Player.

In his first season as offensive coordinator in 2011, Dickenson oversaw a Stamps offence that was among the league leaders in numerous categories. In four seasons from 2012-15 under Dickenson's tutelage, the Stampeders offence led the CFL in cumulative points scored, finishing either first or second each year. He was part of a Grey Cup championship team in 2014.

On Dec. 1, 2015, Dickenson was named the 25th head coach in Stampeders history.

In 2016 – his first season at the helm – the Stampeders set a franchise record with 31 standings points thanks to a 15-2-1 record. The Stamps had the CFL's highest-scoring offence as well as the stingiest defence and the team reached the Grey Cup championship game. Dickenson won the Annis Stukus Trophy as the CFL's coach of the year.

In 2017, Dickenson was the West Division finalist for coach of the year as the Stamps finished first in the West with a 13-4-1 record and again made it to the Grey Cup game.

In 2018, Dickenson led the Stamps to their eighth Grey Cup title in franchise history as Calgary defeated the Ottawa Redblacks 27-16. The Stamps finished atop the West and advanced to the Grey Cup for a third straight season.

In 2019, the Stampeders finished second in the West Division with a record of 12-6 and earned the right to host a playoff game for a fourth consecutive year with Dickenson at the helm. The Stamps led the league with a turnover ratio of plus-15 and were the second-least penalized team in the CFL.

In 2021, the Stampeders rallied from a slow start to win six of their last seven regular-season games. The strong finish allowed the Stamps to continue their streaks of winning seasons and playoff appearances.

Calgary finished 12-6 in 2022, led the CFL with 562 points scored and ranked second in the league with 397 points allowed. Eleven Stampeders received West Division all-star nods and eight players were named CFL all-stars.

In 2023, Dickenson led the Stamps to an 18th consecutive playoff appearance. The Stamps' run of post-season appearances was in jeopardy until back-to-back clutch victories in October – at home against Saskatchewan and on the road against BC – allowed Calgary to clinch a playoff berth.

Dickenson joined the Calgary coaching staff after an outstanding 13-year professional playing career. He spent 11 of his 13 seasons in the Canadian Football League, six of those with the Stampeders (1996-2000 and 2008) and was part of the Canadian Football Hall of Fame's class of 2015.

A potent combination of intelligence, athletic ability and courage, Dickenson set a number of CFL passing records and was named the league's Most Outstanding Player in 2000 after throwing for 4,636 yards, 36 touchdowns and only six interceptions while guiding the Stampeders to a 12-5-1 record.

After spending two seasons in the National Football League — with San Diego in 2001 and with Seattle, Miami and Detroit in 2002 — Dickenson returned to Canada and signed with the BC Lions. After five seasons with the Leos – including a 2005 campaign in which he established league records for highest completion percentage and quarterback rating in a single season and an MVP performance in the 2006 Grey Cup – Dickenson returned to Calgary in 2008 for what proved to be his final season.

Dickenson joined the Stampeders in 1996 after a stellar career at the University of Montana. He was a three-time conference MVP with the Grizzlies and in 1995 led the nation in passing while guiding Montana to the NCAA Division 1-AA national title. He was named a member of the College Football Hall of Fame's Class of 2018 and was part of the Big Sky Conference's inaugural Hall of Fame class in 2020.

He and his wife Tammy along with children Avery and Cooper live in Calgary year-round. His coaching role extends into the off-season as he annually operates the Dickenson Passing Academy to work with young quarterbacks and receivers.

PAT DELMONACO

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR AND OFFENSIVE LINE COACH

CFL • 16 | STAMPS • 12

DelMonaco is in his 12th season as the Stampeders' offensive line coach and sixth with the additional title of offensive coordinator. He has been on staff for Grey Cup wins in 2014 and 2018.

In 11 seasons with DelMonaco as offensive line coach, the Stamps have never finished lower than third in fewest sacks allowed.

DelMonaco joined the Stamps in 2014 after spending the previous four seasons as the offensive line coach for the Winnipeg Blue Bombers. Under DelMonaco, members of the Blue Bombers offensive line earned a total of five division all-star honours.

In DelMonaco's first year as Calgary's offensive line coach, left tackle Stanley Bryant and centre Brett Jones were CFL all-stars as they helped the Stampeders lead the league with 143.9 rushing yards per game.

The Stampeders did not allow a single sack in the 102nd Grey Cup game as Calgary beat Hamilton to win the seventh title in franchise history.

In 2015, the offensive line paved the way for three different tailbacks to record 100-yard games. Pierre Lavertu and Spencer Wilson were West Division all-stars.

The Stamps allowed the fewest sacks in the CFL for a third consecutive season in 2016. Two members of the offensive line — Derek Dennis and Spencer Wilson — were named CFL all-stars and Dennis was voted the league's Most Outstanding Offensive Lineman.

In 2017, Ucambre Williams became the team's starting centre despite limited experience at the position and was Calgary's nominee for the CFL's Most Outstanding Offensive Lineman award.

In 2018, the Calgary offensive line tied for the league lead in fewest sacks allowed with 27 and Dennis earned West Division all-star honours. The Stamps allowed just one sack in a win over Ottawa in the Grey Cup championship game.

In 2019, Calgary allowed the second-fewest sacks in the CFL with 34. Offensive lineman Shane Bergman was the Stamps' nominee for Most Outstanding Offensive Lineman and earned West Division and CFL all-star recognition.

The Stampeders allowed just 20 sacks in 2021 – the second-lowest total in the league – despite nine different offensive linemen making a start including four who were making their first starts of their careers. In DelMonaco's first season with the additional of offensive coordinator, three different offensive players were named West Division all-stars – running back Ka'Deem Carey, centre Sean McEwen and receiver Kamar Jorden. McEwen was also a CFL all-star.

In 2022, the Stampeders led the CFL with 562 points scored and 135.3 rushing yards per game. Calgary allowed just 17 sacks, 12 fewer than the next-best team in that category. Three members of the offensive line – Dennis, McEwen and right guard Ryan Sceviour – made the West Division all-star team along with receiver Malik Henry and CFL rushing champion Carey. Three Stampeders – Dennis, McEwen and Carey – were named to the CFL all-star team.

The Calgary offence boasted a pair of West all-stars in 2023 including receiver Reggie Begelton and McEwen. Begelton was also a CFL all-star. Injuries forced the team to use 10 different starting offensive linemen over the course of the season but Calgary nevertheless managed to allow the third-fewest sacks in the league.

Begelton repeated his accomplishments as a division and league all-star in 2024.

DelMonaco came to the CFL in 2010 after a seven-year stint at Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute. He was RPI's offensive line coach for two seasons (2003-04) and the offensive coordinator for five years (2005-09).

He previously had stops at Hudson Valley Community College and as a graduate assistant at the University of Illinois. DelMonaco played offensive line for four seasons at the University of Albany and was a captain during his senior season. The Great Danes won two conference championships during DelMonaco's Albany career.

DelMonaco and his wife Kelly have two children — Julia and Pasquale III.

BOB SLOWIK
DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR

CFL • 7 | STAMPS • 5

Slowik is in his fifth season with the Stampeders and his first as the team's defensive coordinator. He served as Calgary's defensive assistant in 2021 and was linebackers coach from 2022 to 2024.

With the assistance of Slowik in his first season with the Red and White, the Stampeders ranked third in the CFL in team defence in 2021 and held their opponents to fewer than 300 yards of net offence five times.

As linebackers coach in 2022, two members of Slowik's group – Cameron Judge and Jameer Thurman – played an integral role in a Calgary defence that allowed the second-fewest points in the CFL. Both players finished top 10 in the league in tackles and Judge earned West Division and CFL all-star honours after leading the league in both fumble recoveries with five and big plays (a combination of interceptions, forced fumbles, fumble recoveries, blocked kicks and tackles, sacks or knockdowns leading to a turnover on downs).

Two members of Slowik's linebacking crew – Micah Awe and Judge – had stellar seasons for the Red and White in 2023. A West Division and CFL all-star in his first season with Calgary, Awe set a team record for most tackles in a season with 134 and led the league in both tackles and defensive plays. Judge was tied for second in the league and was first among linebackers with five interceptions in 2023 and also had 91 tackles, a fumble recovery and two forced fumbles.

In 2019, Slowik was defensive coordinator for the Montreal Alouettes. The Larks allowed the second-fewest points in the East Division and were led by linebacker Henoc Muamba, who won the CFL's Most Outstanding Canadian award. Five members of Slowik's unit – Muamba, John Bowman, Patrick Levels, Tommie Campbell and Greg Reid – were voted division all-stars while Muamba and Reid received league all-star recognition.

Prior to coming to the CFL, Slowik had a lengthy and distinguished career in the NFL including stints totaling 10 years as defensive coordinator with the Chicago Bears, Cleveland Browns, Green Bay Packers and Denver Broncos. During that time, six different players earned a combined total of 11 Pro Bowl honours and he coached two players – Champ Bailey and John Lynch – who went on to be inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

His 21 consecutive years as a coach in the NFL started with a position as defensive assistant on the Dallas Cowboys' Super Bowl-winning team following the 1992 season and concluded with four seasons with Washington from 2010-13.

Slowik coached 11 years in the collegiate ranks including five seasons in charge of the secondary at Rutgers, two seasons as outside linebackers coach at East Carolina and four seasons at Florida as a part-time defensive backs assistant.

During his playing days, he was a cornerback for the University of Delaware. He is an alumnus of Pittsburgh's Baldwin High School.

CFL • 15 | STAMPS • 1

Howell is in his first season on the Stampeders staff and his 15th as a CFL coach.

He began his coaching career in 2011 as linebackers coach for the Winnipeg Blue Bombers, his hometown team. The Bombers finished first in the East Division that year, allowed a division-low 432 points and reached the Grey Cup championship game.

Starting in 2012 and for a total of four seasons, Howell served as Winnipeg's receivers coach. Howell was receivers coach and pass game coordinator for the Toronto Argonauts in 2021. The Argos finished in first place in the East Division and one of Howell's receivers – Kurleigh Gittens Jr. – earned division all-star recognition.

Miles is in his first season as the Stampeders' defensive backs coach after 15 years of sideline experience around the CFL as well as a distinguished 12-year playing career with the Montreal Alouettes and BC Lions.

Miles began his coaching career in 2010 with the Lions, the club with which he had concluded his playing career the previous season. He served in that role for two years and in 2011 was part of a defensive coaching staff that oversaw a unit that allowed a league-low 21.4 points per game.

From 2012 to 2014, Miles was defensive backs coach with the Saskatchewan Roughriders. Safety Tyron Brackenridge was a division and league all-star in both 2013 and 2014 while halfback Dwight Anderson was a West all-star in 2013. The Roughriders led the CFL in interceptions in 2013.

In 2016, Miles moved to Edmonton and was the Green and Gold's defensive backs and player development coach for four years. In 2017, the secondary boasted West and CFL all-star Kenny Ladler and helped Edmonton finish with the league's second-best pass defence. In 2019, Edmonton's defence allowed the fewest passing yards in the CFL.

Miles was hired as Montreal's defensive backs coach and run game coordinator in 2020 and was promoted to defensive coordinator when the league resumed play in 2021 after a one-year hiatus. He remained in that role until July 6, 2022. In 2021, the Als defence led the league in sacks and two-and-outs forced while defensive lineman David Ménard and defensive back Monshadrik Hunter were East Division all-stars.

Miles was named the Ottawa Redblacks' defensive coordinator in 2023 and in each of his two seasons in that position, the team led the CFL in fewest yards allowed per rushing attempt. Two members of the Redblacks – Bryce Carter and Brandin Dandridge – were East Division all-stars in 2023.

Under Miles in 2024, the Redblacks defence tied BC for the second-most sacks in the league and featured four division all-stars in Lorenzo Mauldin IV, Michael Wakefield, Adarius Pickett and Damon Webb. Mauldin and Webb were also league all-stars.

In 2022, in between his CFL stints with Montreal and Ottawa, Miles served as defensive coordinator at Bishop's University. The Gaiters boasted the second-stingiest defence in the Atlantic University Sport conference with an average of 15.0 points allowed per game and also ranked second in the conference with 22 sacks.

As a CFL player with Montreal and BC, Miles was a 10-time division all-star, a six-time league all-star and a two-time Grey Cup champion. He was elected to the Canadian Football Hall of Fame in 2018.

In college, the Roselle, N.J., product starred at the University of Nebraska and was a part of the Cornhuskers' national-championship team in 1994.

GREY CUP HISTORY

The Calgary Stampeders have made it to the Grey Cup 17 times in their history and have eight championships to their credit.

The Stamps won their first championship in just their fourth year of existence, claiming the 1948 title. They returned to the Grey Cup in 1949 but this time lost the match to Montreal.

That would mark the end of the Stamps' participation in the big game until nearly two full decades later in 1968. Calgary lost the '68 contest but the appearance started a run in which the Red and White advanced to the Grey Cup three times in four seasons, culminating with a victory in 1971.

Then came another drought, this one lasting exactly 20 years before Calgary reached the Grey Cup in 1991. While the Stamps lost the 1991 Grey Cup game to Toronto, the contest nevertheless marked the dawn of an era of Stampeders excellence. The Red and White reached the Grey Cup game six times in the next 11 years and won three titles.

After a relatively short lull of six seasons, the Stamps returned to the pinnacle in 2008 and won again in 2014 and added another title in 2018.

PRESIDENTS' RING

The Presidents' Ring is presented annually to the Calgary Stampeders player deemed by his teammates to have best combined excellence on the football field with leadership, inspiration and motivational skills.

In 2024, veteran receiver Reggie Begelton was the recipient of the Presidents' Ring.

Begelton had another standout season with the Stampeders as he led the club with 92 catches and 1,150 receiving yards and was among the Canadian Football League leaders in both categories (tied for second in catches and fifth in yards).

Begelton's play and work ethic are a shining example for the team's young receivers and he is also a familiar sight in the community. He was the 2023 winner of the Herm Harrison Memorial Award for his community service and was frequent participant in numerous team events again this year including regular visits to the Alberta Children's Hospital.

The Presidents' Ring was established in 1967 by team president George McMahon and general manager Rogers Lehew.

Honouring the memory of one the legendary figures in Stampeders history, the Herm Harrison Memorial Award was instituted in 2014 and recognizes a Stampeders player who distinguishes himself in the field of community service. Harrison passed away on Nov. 2, 2013, at the age of 74.

One of the franchise's all-time greats, Harrison played for the Stampeders from 1964-72 and was a West Division all-star on six occasions and a CFL all-star three times. Harrison settled in Calgary after his playing career and was an active member of numerous community initiatives as an alumnus. Among the many causes he supported, the Special Olympics were a particular favourite. He was added to the Stampeders Wall of Fame in 1988 and inducted into the Canadian Football Hall of Fame in 1993.

HERM HARRISON MEMORIAL AWARD

In 2024, the award went to receiver Marken Michel.

A five-year veteran of the Red and White, Michel was an enthusiastic participant in the majority of the community programs operated by the Stampeders including Every Yard Counts, which features player visits to the Alberta Children's Hospital on the eve of every home game.

Michel also brought his passion and positive energy to organizations and initiatives such as the Calgary Food Bank, PinkPower and KidsPlay and made numerous appearances at community and cultural events. In addition, he shared his experience and football knowledge by taking part in the Learn to Play flag football camp for ages 5 to 15 and attending minor-football games and practices.

Michel's commitment to being a positive force in the community wasn't limited to team-organized activities. On multiple occasions, he led groups of teammates into the downtown core to distribute food and water to those in need.

ATTACK IN BLACK

The Stampeders have an all-time record of 36-13-1 (regular season and post-season) while wearing their black jerseys, good for a .730 winning percentage.

The Stamps were the first Canadian Football League team to introduce a permanent third jersey when they unveiled black jerseys for the Labour Day Classic on Sept. 6, 1994. They capped the occasion with a 48-15 win over Edmonton.

Calgary played its first black-jersey playoff game in the 1998 West Division final and defeated Edmonton. A week later, while again sporting black, the Stamps beat Hamilton 26-24 in the Grey Cup.

LABOUR DAY CLASSIC

Since 1982 and for all but two seasons since 1969, the Calgary Stampeders have been hosting Edmonton in the Labour Day Classic. The Labour Day edition of the Battle of Alberta was first played in Calgary in 1959 and the clubs have met a total of 57 times, with the Stamps holding a record of 30-27-1.

While there is a lot of Labour Day history between Calgary and Edmonton, there is more to the Red and White's tradition on the September holiday than the rivalry with their provincial counterparts.

As a matter of fact, the first Labour Day game was the first regular-season contest the Stampeders ever played. The historic Sept. 2, 1946, game was against the Regina Roughriders at Calgary's Mewata Stadium, with the Stamps winning 9-0.

It was in 1949 that the now-familiar Calgary-Edmonton Labour Day matchup was born. The Alberta teams played five straight years in Edmonton before the series was briefly abandoned. Then, in 1959, the Red and White's rivalry with the Green and Gold was renewed. This time, Calgary was the site of the game and, with only a few exceptions over the years, it is in this form the tradition continues to exist today.

A total of 68 Labour Day games have been played in Calgary over the years, with the Stamps posting a 40-27-1 record. Calgary is 30-27-1 against Edmonton and undefeated against the Blue Bombers (6-0), Argonauts (2-0), Roughriders (1-0) and Lions (1-0).
